

TALENTED WRITER Praises Peruna as a Catarrh Remedy

MRS. E. M. TINNEY.

Mrs. E. M. Tinney, story writer, 205 E. Nueva St., San Antonio, Tex., writes: "During 1901 I suffered from nasal catarrh, which various other remedies failed to relieve. "Six bottles of Peruna, which I took, entirely cured me, the catarrh disappearing and never returning. "I therefore cheerfully recommend Peruna to all similarly afflicted."

Mrs. Ellen Nagle, 414 4th street, Green Bay, Wis., writes: "I have often heard Peruna praised and it is more widely known here than any other medicine, but I never knew what a splendid medicine it really was until a few weeks ago, when I caught a bad cold which settled all over me. "The doctor wanted to prescribe, but I told him I was going to try Peruna and sent for a bottle and tried it. "I felt much better the next morning and within five days I had not a trace of any lameness or any cough. "I consider it the finest cough remedy."

PERUNA TABLETS:—Some people prefer to take tablets, rather than to take medicine in a fluid form. Such people can obtain Peruna tablets, which represent the solid medicinal ingredients of Peruna.

SUCCESS. "My play has met with great success." "Why? Are the houses crowded?" "No. A race horse has been named after it."—Milwaukee Journal.

A CRUEL CRITIC. "I had no idea when I penned this the child of my brain—" "The poem shows it, madam."—Houston Post.

Game in Maine. From every indication noticed by the wardens who spend nearly all their time in the woods, and corroborated by people who have been camping and canoeing in the Maine woods, game is just as plentiful as it was five years ago. Notwithstanding this deep snow and extreme cold of the winter the deer wintered well, and there are hundreds of young bucks and does which came through the winter and are in the best of condition, says a Maine report. The summer was wet and the deer had all the water they wanted in the swamps without going out to the lakes and streams. Because of this not as many deer as usual were seen by canoeing parties, but the number seen indicates that the animals are plentiful. Moose also are plentiful, more of them than of deer having been seen in some localities. Young bulls seem more numerous than usual, but few large bulls have been seen.—New York Tribune.

"Jack Tar" Newspapers. Several of the big ships in the United States Navy have their own newspapers. On board the Kentucky is printed The Kentucky Budget, a semi-monthly paper. The Louisiana is responsible for The Pelican, which is issued monthly. The battleship Ohio has The Buckeye. The West Virginia boasts of The Ditty Box. The Badger is printed monthly on the Wisconsin. All of the above papers are issued by the enlisted men of the ships. The aim of each is identical—to make life aboard the ship more agreeable, and to give the friends in civil life an outline of naval doings and of the brighter side of naval life.

TO PERTINENT. "The Women's Sewing Circle of our church is ripping mad at our new minister." "What about?" "They asked him to select a hymn to be sung at each of their meetings, and he suggested 'Knocking Knocking, Who Is There?'—Brooklyn Life.

For Inflammation

Ladies

who suffer from inflammation of the womanly organs, should be careful that they do not allow the inflammation to spread, or take fast hold, since serious disease might result, requiring, possibly, an operation. Pain is one of the first signs of inflammation, and when it remains constant, in the back, side, hips, head, or comes back every month, your trouble is nearly certain to be inflammation, and needs prompt treatment, with Wine of Cardui.

The great popular success of Cardui, during the past half century, tells volumes as to its merit for female complaints. Thousands of letters are received, telling of its curative powers. See the following, from Mrs. Mabel Hashenbarger, of Larkin, Kas.

"Before I took Cardui I suffered greatly with inflammation. It worked on me for some years, but hadn't bothered me much, till after my marriage, when it caused me two mishaps. After that, Cardui helped me so much and I am so thankful."
